

SONY*PCS-G70VP

High-end videoconferencing system that addresses all large conference rooms needs.

High-end videoconferencing system

The PCS-G70VP is the latest high-end videoconferencing solution from Sony, offering improved audio and video on multi-point calls, as well as new capture and display features designed to complement high-end boardrooms, large conferencing centres, auditoriums and healthcare applications where high quality is essential.

Features

Up to 4 Mb/s s over IP

Up to 768 kb/s over ISDN or up to 2 Mb/s PRI interface (option)

High quality video using H264 standard and 4CIF resolution (TV like)

Wideband Audio MPEG4 Point to Point and Multipoint calls

Live Video + XGA Data simultaneously using H239 standard thanks to Data Solution Box

Dual live Video

Split video mode 2 videos streams displayed horizontally or vertically on a single monitor

6 sites Multipoint IP or ISDN or mixed using transcoding and speedmatching

5 monitors ouput + sites names displayed

Cascading for 10 sites Multipoint

Interactive White Board (Mimio Xi) USB plug and play

Advanced Quality of Service

Prime Support

Benefits

Superb picture quality 4CIF live video delivering TV quality images

High resolution Presentation and Presenter could be seen simultaneously. Connect up to 2 PCs or notebook computers and share data at the touch of a button in parallel with audio and video

Dual live video, 2 live video streams in Parallel and Split video capability

Embedded multipoint functionality, up to 6 parties over any mix of ISDN, IP and DSL networks including videoconference systems and (mobile) telephones could be connected

SIP ready

Latest technology and industry-wide interoperability

Connects via IP networks, ADSL/DSL lines or ISDN at high bandwidths

Unique Memory Stick functions Private Phonebook

Includes Prime Support 'Collect and Deliver' service with 2-year extended warranty